Any employee who meets any of these criteria should be sent home.

- Customers may purchase items from a retail location for pickup, delivery by mail, or delivery to the customer's doorstep, but may not enter the premises.

- Retail to-go:
 - All payments should be done over the phone or internet if possible, and contact should be minimized if remote payment is not available.
 - Purchased items should be delivered by the employee to the backseat or trunk of the customer's vehicle whenever possible to minimize physical contact with the customer.
 - Employees must wash or sanitize their hands after each interaction with a customer, and whenever possible, must disinfect any item that came into contact with the customer.
- Retail delivery to customer's doorstep:
 - All payments should be done over the phone or internet if possible, and contact should be minimized if remote payment is not available.
 - Purchased items should be delivered by an employee or third-party carrier and delivered to the customer's doorstep. The employee or third-party carrier may not enter the customer's house or business.
- Retail delivery by mail:
 - All payments must be done over the phone or internet.
 - Purchased items should be delivered by mail without customer contact.
